

Inspired Energy LLC is a privately-owned business located in the town of Newberry, just west of Gainesville Florida. We focus on the development and production of portable rechargeable power systems including; battery pack design and manufacture, electronic circuit design, charger assembly, and circuit board manufacturing.

Want an Internship, a Career or Something In-Between?

We are looking for smart, obsessively detail-oriented, motivated people with a professional demeanor. We are more concerned about you than which school you've been to or how many years of experience you have. Convince us that you would make a good part of our team and we will find a place for you. We have space for inspired people from interns to senior managers in our front office, quality, production, engineering, IT, sales, marketing and finance.

If you are interested in working at Inspired Energy send us an example of data you have gathered and used to achieve a significant change in your personal or professional life, or send us your essay on "Achieving order from chaos" or "Dealing with complexity"..

Get creative! The submission could be an analytical spreadsheet, a creative essay, or something else - whichever method you are best suited to.

Impress us and challenge yourself.

What's it like working at Inspired Energy?

Dynamic. Full of opportunity. Challenging. Rewarding.

At IE you are a big cog in a little wheel... not the other way around. Everyone takes on significant responsibility and as such everyone has power to make real change. You work closely with each person and department in the company. Everybody keeps an open door and pitches in, whether it's for organizing the summer picnic or getting product out of the door for a customer in need.

Culture

We work hard to play hard.

We strive for continuous improvement and unsurpassed quality.

We are energetic and knowledgeable and take pride in our work and our company.

We value the opportunity to serve our industry and our employees.

All of these contributions to culture are strengthened by the importance we place on family and preserving the healthy balance between professional and personal life.

Perks & Benefits

We've got you covered when it comes to medical & dental insurance, competitive salaries, tuition reimbursement, 401k, profit sharing and meaningful bonuses. Of course, the biggest perk is working for a family first company alongside dynamic and passionate team members.
